

Ministry Protocol for Kanayo Dike-Oduah

Thank you for your warm invitation to have me minister at your upcoming event. In the interim I will pray towards the vision and success of this event.

As a minister, I operate under our Father God's instruction and strive to serve with excellence in all things. I endeavour to play my role in seeing the vision of this event fulfilled and I expect the compliance of the event organisers and other relevant parties involved.

I respectfully require the following from you as the hosts:

- To be advised of all information pertaining to the event (i.e. Time of arrival, venue, schedule, time allowed to minister and any other relevant information)
– 48 hour notice period required if there are any changes.
- To be advised of any pre-event meetings, conference calls, rehearsals, promotional filming that requires my attendance. (Please note that I am a working professional and take this into consideration when arranging the stated).
– 48 hour notice period required if there are any changes.
- Promotional material bearing my name or image must be consented and validated.
- I expect, unless agreed otherwise, for all travel (and accommodation) costs to be covered. N.B. Travel costs apply if the event location is outside a 10 mile radius from Bromley.
- I do not have a ministration fee, however any love/gift offerings will be received with gratitude.
- I prefer to be contacted via telephone and/or email. Please see my contact details below and do not share without consent:

If you require anything further from me, do advise me in good time. Finally, if you have any queries concerning the stated above, please do not hesitate to raise them with me.

Thank you for your understanding.

Yours Faithfully in Christ,

Kanayo Dike-Oduah
