

The Lord is The Teacher of teachers;
I shall not be ignorant.

He makes me to dwell in quiet classrooms.
He leads me beside peaceful corridors.
He restores my mind.
He gives me the right things to say and teach; for His glory
and His name's sake.

Even though I feel like time is slipping,
I will not be overwhelmed by marking
and planning;
for You are with me.

Your wisdom and peace comfort me.

You pour out your favour upon me,
in the presence of my inspectors.
You anoint my brain with excellent
teaching practice;
my passion for teaching and learning
overflows.

Surely, Your wisdom and peace will follow me,
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the classroom of
the Holy Spirit
as a faithful student,
forever.
